

Proceeds aid the Adamsville Church of Christ in providing scholarships for preacher students. Because of this, we ask that you carefully observe the following license restrictions:

You are allowed to download the files to any number of your personal devices.

You are also allowed to share the files with your spouse or minor children living in your home.

That's it. You do not have the right to share this document or the audio files with anyone else in any way. For other permissions, please contact the Adamsville Church of Christ directly.

We can't assure that you follow the license. We are trusting you to deal with the Adamsville congregation honestly.
